Jennifer Andregó

I am sorry to announce that our fellow sailor and friend Jenifer Andregó has passed on December 14 after a long fight with cancer.

I first met Jenifer over 12 years ago when she was first crewing for Jack and since has crewed for me as well as many others through the years. She was my crew when I did the nationals at Howard Prairie where I probably did some of my best sailing ever. Jenifer was a free spirit and at times marched to a different drummer, but she always enjoyed being out in the warm sun and on the water. Although she was never an official member of the club, over the last few years was always the first to volunteer to help out with race duties and really enjoyed the social outlets the club provided.

I know that in the coming years her spirit will be with us out on the water as well as on land.

Stan Smith, The First Lido Captain

The friendliest guy you'll ever meet—always with a warm, firm-handshake. On the Lake, he jokingly competed with the closest boat around him. Mary-Frances, his caring wife, was a partisan too. Several times, she had a big pot of clam chowder, for the sailors, cooked in their van at the Lake. Stan has had MS for much of his adult life, but it never really slowed him. But more recently, he suffered a stroke and is in constant care with Mary-Frances's frequent support.

Commodore's Report

December, 2007

I thanked a number of people in the last couple of Logs, but I want to send a more general round of thanks to everyone who helped with club activities for the year, and also to you who came out and participated in our events and activities. Without both helpers and participants we are sort of nowhere.

Racing goes on during the winter. I'll mention the Richmond and Lake Merritt midwinter series. I understand that the first Richmond Midwinter on December 2nd turned out to be pretty wild, with a whole bunch of wind. I read in the EI Toro online newsletter "Bullsession" that there were about three ET sailors who handled it all right, a couple of others who just sort of survived getting around the course, several who just went over trying to go downwind, and a number (perhaps the wisest) who just watched from the dock or clubhouse. Not sure how the other fleets did. I'll have to admit that I, along with the rest of the local Sunfish sailors, ducked out because of the forecast for wind and cold.

The following Saturday, at Lake Merritt, there turned out around a dozen EI Toros and four Sunfish. That day was sunny, not so cold, with usually enough wind to move the boats, but with the challenging shifts, holes, and variations of wind with position that Lake Merritt sailors know and love. I had a good time, I think others did also.

So, the next regattas will be the first Sunday in January (the 6th) at Richmond (conditions usually aren't as wild as last time) and the second Sunday (the 13th) at Lake Merritt. Check www.richmondyc.org for information about them, and contact me or an EI Toro sailor for information about Lake Merritt.

Christmas Parties are coming up for the EI Toros and the Lidos. The Lidos have invited the rest of the club to the Crew Appreciation Brunch in January, which should make a good start for the year. Watch or check for the date.

Best wishes to all for the holidays and for the New Year.

Roy Jordan

El Toro Christmas

Last night the Toro's has their annual Christmas Party. In addition to much socialization we also brought gifts for the Toy's for Tot's and as you can see our own Commodore is unwrapping of one of the fine gifts that were donated.

We were also entertained by our very own Unrehearsed Brass-Woodwind Ensemble featuring Art Lewis on the horn, Susie Lange on the trumpet, Peter Blasberg on the alto sax and Sybil Lewis on the guitar. Nancy Tucker was unable to play her flute due to her recent broken arm and shoulder surgery.

Our sympathy goes out to Art Lange, who usually performs with this group, but was on his way to Florida to attend to the arrangements for his mother who passed away earlier yesterday.

Hope this short note and few photos can make for some filler for the December Windjammer.

Merry Christmas to you and Claude, will see you on January 8th.

Vern

LIDO FOR SALE**

It's with mixed emotions I've decided to sell my Lido.

(Hull number WDSH43420777-L14)

I've been spending all my available sailing time on a Cat 27 on the Bay while my Lido has not been in the water all season, and that's a waste of a good Lido.

So, if you know anyone who will give Lido 4342 a good home, please let me know.

thanks and best wishes,
Alan. Orr
